INTRODUCTION

This book is a small part of my divinely commissioned book called THE DISTRACTED MAN.

A little digression; one of the reasons why I talk and write about sex is because when I asked the Lord what my mandate is...

He told me that I am supposed to release a flow of focus to my generation. Since I didn't understand what this meant, I kept praying for understanding.

One day, while I was traveling, enroute home, he gave me the title of a book called THE DISTRACTED

MAN. As I prayed about it, he started to give me a divine revelation on FOCUS.

I UNDERSTOOD how closely our eternal rewards of CROWNS, THRONES and MANSIONS are connected to our FOCUS ON EARTH!

If we must lay claim to our greatest eternal rewards, then we need to FOCUS ON RUNNING OUR RACE, FIGHTING THE GOOD FIGHT AND FINISHING OUR COURSE!

There is a level of excellence that men will never operate in as long as they are distracted. Distraction and excellence are not the best of friends.

Men are wired to concentrate on something, at least one thing to its perfection.

That's why most famous men in history are known for ONLY one thing which they did excellently well!

When a man does not focus, he can't accomplish much with his life. I say that a focused atheist will accomplish more than a distracted saint. Let's learn to gather our thoughts lest women scatter them.

SEX DISTRACTS MEN

Sex distracts millions of men worldwide from their purpose daily. One man confessed to me:

“No matter how serious I got with life or God, there was always a woman to distract me from my focus. Truly, I was a distracted man. I could never focus even when I had a woman in my house doing my beck and call.

I was born again, but I was living like a worldly person in so far as sexual flings were concerned! I had eyes full of adultery.”

WHEN ANGELS LOST IT

Word given in 2017 as I prayed:

The angels who lost their place, first lost their focus.
You don't lose anything in the spirit before you lose it at your thought process.

He whose mind is not stayed on me will eventually lose himself.

If you don't lose yourself in me you will lose

yourself to other things.
The thing that you choose to give your attention will draw you away from me and your throne.

I am connected to your throne. Your throne is connected to your purpose. Your purpose is hidden in me. Until you find your purpose, you can't sit on your throne.

A throne does not focus
you. It reveals your focus.
It is the fruit of your focus. Even if men give you a big throne, without focus you cannot sustain it. You are not worth the throne you never got by focus. A throne minus focus is a seat of thorns.

The angels who lost their positions first lost their focus.

They forgot who they were. They sought to act independently from me. They shifted their attention from me.

When you take away your attention from me, something else will occupy your attention in the realm of thoughts.

The dominant thought will have sway in your decision to act.

The angels exalted the beauty of women above
the glory of their thrones, thus defeating their own purpose. They disdained their purpose in the face of going out for something outside the limits of their jurisdiction.

Angels don't marry. These angels fantasized on marriage with beautiful women and desired an offspring of their own. Here, the seeds of rape were born, and violence violated the human will in heinous acts of random sex between angels and human girls.

GIANTS

The result was mayhem. Giants were born outside the purpose of Heaven. They perpetrated the will of their angelic order, but trapped in human frames bigger than those of average men.

Genetics were affected within several generations, and a culture of immorality and violence took root. The angels saw the fruit of their error but they did not repent. Instead, they taught the children of men more wickedness drawn from their loftier imagination.

Once the two imagination threads blend into one, men thought of continually rebelling against me. Their focus had been broken by a continuous evil imagination. Angels had accelerated this!

It's this imagination that birthed all manner of sexual perversion on earth. Orgies, sodomy, incest, polygamy, polyandry, bestiality came into play while more aberrations were invented at a whim.

When angels, men or both lose their focus, the results are disastrous. A catastrophe was in the offing. This is the result of distracted beings. They are capable of all manner of destruction.

DISTRACTION LEADS TO DESTRUCTION!

For Satan to destroy, he first must distract. As long as angels and men are focused on me, no destruction takes place. But immediately focus is lost, distraction takes place and it's within the cycle of distraction, destruction occurs.

You know you are distracted when you lose your Peace. When you lose your joy, know that you are distracted too. In my presence, there's fullness of Joy.

I keep in perfect peace he whose mind is stayed on me. The peace you enjoy is proportional to your ability to remain focused. Focus accelerates time and gives you speed in the path of purpose.

A focused mind is a mind at peace. A peaceful mind is a strong mind. The enemy of your soul hates peace. To weaken your mind, he must attack your peace. To attack your peace, he must attack your focus.

Once your focus is attacked, you are on your way to losing everything. At your focus level is where your destiny holds together or falls apart. When you realize you can't focus, know a great battle for your soul is being waged.

You know you are not focused when you don't know what to do with your life. You know you are not focused when you begin project "A" then abandon it for projects "D", "H" and "Q". You never settle at anything though years are passing.

You are not focused if your impact and influence don't add up.

Immediately you get focused, your fruit of labour doubles, multiplies and prevails. Focus is the secret to abnormal success and multiplication.

You can succeed without focus to a degree. But you cannot succeed abnormally without focus. What you call abnormal is supernatural. My spirit will teach you to focus or evil forces will focus you on something for their own evil end. Yeah, even evil can be focused.

The most evil men in history have been focused men. The good men, too, have been focused men. Even so, the world is yet to see with what I will do when this message reaches my intercessors who I have been secretly preparing!

I am raising a people of passionate prayers and works who will storm the gates of heaven with the most daring demands
and they will not take no for an answer. A people who will pray as if their very lives depend on their pleas.

These will be focused intercessors of the last hour. They will bring heaven on earth constitutionally. It will be impossible for the enemy to stop their prayers.

Then the earth will yield her increase!

FOCUS IS A PERSON

Focus is not something you do.
If you try to focus
you will find that you keep losing your focus.
You must know me as your focus. I am the center of the universe. "In me, all things hold together!"

Those who live around my throne understand focus. I am all they need. I am all they think. I am everything and in everything. I fill all, and I am in all. You must learn to see me in everything and your focus will never be lost.

From the midst of my throne there's thunder and lightning and rumblings. Focus is not about silence. You can find your focus in the noisiest bedlam.

When you stop fighting noises in your head and chaos around you, you will find that you don't have to struggle to focus.

Live my throne life. Take your place and sit before me as an equal. Anytime you think of yourself lesser than I think about you, you lose your focus. Your focus is in your identity. Your identity is hidden in me. I am your focus and your identity.

The moment you lose your fellowship with me, you lose your focus. To be always in my presence is the secret to a focused life. Focused living is living in my presence.

In my presence, every thought is exposed to both of us. As long as your thoughts are processed in my presence, you have no need to hide anything.
Anytime you are tempted to hide anything or act independent of me, your focus shifts!

"Holy Holy Holy! Is the Lord God Almighty. Who

was, who is and who is to come!"

These are your focus words. They are throne words. They are the most crucial words in the universe. Any time you mention these words, your focus will zap in!

The four living creatures never cease to say these words. These words keeps them focused on the creator. The creation is meant to focus on its creator.

That's why the 24 elders never lose their focus. The true worshipper will keep his focus forever. Those who worship are humble beings. Humility will keep you focused on the one who is worthy of all worship.

Humility does not take anything away from the worshipper. Instead, it grants everything to him and he has nothing to withhold from me. If he gives everything, he hasn't lost anything!

Anything you withhold from me will take away your focus. Once your focus is taken you can't offer me anything acceptable. If I don't have you, there's nothing you can give me. If I haven't given you, you have nothing!

All you are is mine. All you have is mine. In your focused living you are able to give me back all that I gave you. And this is worship. This is what has been perfected in the 24 elders.

It's called casting crowns.

HUMILITY

He who will not cast his crowns down cannot keep his throne. To keep your throne you must be focused. You must learn to release anything that would distract you. Crowns distract. Glory distracts. If you lose your focus, your throne will follow suit.

To keep your throne, you must disregard your crowns. To get more crowns, you need to cast down the ones on your head. A full head will not learn more. A proud king will soon be distracted. To be distracted, is to risk losing your throne.

As long your focus endures, your throne will endure. The angels who lost their estate were distracted by beautiful women on earth. Once they lost their focus, they could not keep their positions.

Whatever distracts you from me is an enemy to your focus. Unless you discern the enemies of your soul, and deny them attention, you will fall prey to distraction.

Since distractions are everywhere, you must guard your heart with all diligence. Guard your thoughts and your thought-life with every attention you can muster. This is only if you are struggling to find your focus in me. If you are struggling to focus, your worship is in question.

Once I am your focus, you will never need to struggle to guard your thoughts. You will not struggle to hear me. Your immediate focus will translate to your hearing me. It means you will have discovered to live in my presence.

This is my perfect will for you and your children, and those under your care!
